This applies to any UK resident.

Branch Membership

Currently there are almost 30 branches and groups of BSAOC members meeting regularly. A full list of branches can be seen on the club website Branch directory with links to branch websites where applicable and you will also find a listing in the club magazine.

Branch membership provides a regular meeting point for members locally, somewhere you can get together with like minded people. Within each branch, you will find a wealth of information and advice on BSA's and local dealers etc. Many branches have regular social events, runs and attend local shows and events on their BSA's. Typical branch activities include technical talks, video shows, quizzes, swap meets and of course plenty of riding and time to discuss problems and talk about BSA's.

This option is only available to UK members. If you wish to join a branch near you, then please visit them first and ask the Branch Secretary to countersign the form and state the branch you wish to join. Please note that some branches charge extra subscriptions.

Overseas Membership

This applies to anyone resident outside the United Kingdom wishing to join the UK club. Postage charges are applied to cover the extra it costs us to send your magazines to you. Don't forget to double postage costs if you wish to take out two years membership. The initial membership pack (the size of a large padded envelope) may be sent by surface Mail due to the weight. If you wish to have yours sent air mail please contact the membership secretary regarding additional postage costs. The magazine can be sent either air mail or surface mail. By surface mail your magazine may take several weeks to arrive. All overseas members can also access a PDF format of the magazine via the website.

Data Protection

The BSAOC is bound by the Data Protection Act and we do not release your details to any other organisation. Credit card information is stored for two years as required by law. To prevent fraud, the card payment slip is destroyed once the transaction has taken place.

If you have any queries about membership, please email membership@bsaownersclub.co.uk (please put 'BSAOC' into the subject line to ensure we receive your message).

We look forward to hearing from you soon and hope that you will enjoy your BSAOC membership.

Regards
Rob Jones
